PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends:

Thanks to Guy and Jane Manaster, ALFRED ADLER: AS WE REMEMBER HIM has been published and soon will be available through the Alfred Adler Institute of Chicago. The book is a source of encouragement and good humor as it brings Adler's personality into clear focus for those of us who knew him only through his teachings. Guy and Jane have brought to completion a project initiated some years ago by Genevieve Painter, Danica Deutsch, and Betty Jane Overhalt. The efforts of these five people were contributed. Any profits that accrue from the sale of the book will be used to support the work of NASAP.

The advocacy forum continues as a fixture on the program of the Annual Meeting with "Encouraging Schools to Learn" having been selected by the Committee on Public Relations as the topic for the forum at the Washington, D.C. Convention. Janet Turner has agreed to take over the reins of the Committee on Public Relations. Thanks, Janet; and thanks to retiring Chairperson, Richard Berrett, who coordinated the forum in Minneapolis on Child Abuse, and has worked in support of the efforts of Shirley Gould, Gloria Lane, Weltha Logan, Dorothy Peven, Janet Turner, and others who have sought to promote solutions to social problems through the use of the Advocacy Forum.

Best Wishes,

Francis X. Walton
President

COMMITTEE NEWS-PUBLIC RELATIONS VOLUNTEERS

A special sub-committee of NASAP public relations is seeking an Adlerian member of the American Psychiatric Association to serve as liaison to that group as part of an overall plan to improve relationships with APA and other organizations. If interested, please contact Carol Arnold, 5006

Holt, Bellaire, Texas 77401.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Funding Committee - The Executive Committee of NASAP proposed and approved that the Society sponsor the development and possible publication of a funding and grant writing manual for persons within the North American Society who wish to obtain financial subsidy and support for their various activities on a local or national level. A preliminary draft of the manual is in process and will hopefully be submitted to the Executive Committee during their January 1978 meeting. Any information regarding your current efforts and/or successes and failures in obtaining funds and grant money for Adlerian activities would be deeply appreciated. Please send any information, comments or requests in the area of funding to Dr. Jim McDonough, Special Advisor on Funding, 2340 Cavell Avenue South, St. Louis Park, MN 55426.

Research and Evaluation News - Preliminary efforts and plans for establishing a data bank for Adlerian research and publications have been made with Dr. Hal McAbee of the Adler-Dreikurs Institute of Human Relations at Bowie State College in Maryland. It is hoped that the Research Committee of NASAP will be able to establish, organize and direct a national research and publications data bank for students and practitioners of Individual Psychology. If you are currently working on any research efforts or have prepared a manuscript for eventual publication, please submit a brief description or prospectus of your work and the appropriate biographical information which then can be included in this data file.

Also, the research review panel is interested in receiving information about current or proposed research and evaluation studies. Thank you for your interest and support.

Jim McDonough, Ph.D.
Research Committee, NASAP

OF GENERAL INTEREST

BIBLIOGRAPHY MATERIALS NEEDED

The November/December Newsletter urged Adlerians to submit a list of all their publications which have appeared during the past five years, as well as any corrections or oversights from the original edition of a BIBLIOGRAPHY OF ADLERIAN PSYCHOLOGY compiled by Harold and Birdie Mosak. Harold and Birdie report that to date, there have been seven responses from NASAP membership. The project will have to be discontinued unless there is a revival of interest from fellow Adlerians. The Bibliography has been an enormous aid to the promotion and growth of Adlerian psychology. We are all grateful to the Mosaks for the great contribution of time, expense, and effort they have put into its publication.

Listings for the Supplement need to include the following information:

- BOOKS Author(s). Title. Place of Publication: Publisher, Date of Publication.
- JOURNAL ARTICLES Author(s). Title. Journal, Year, Volume, Inclusive Page Numbers.
- CHAPTERS Author(s). Title. In Book Editor (ed.). Title. Place of Publication: Publisher, Date of Publication.
- REVIEWS Reviewer, Review of Author, Title. Place of Publication: Publisher, Date of Publication. In Journal, Year Volume, Inclusive Page Numbers.

FREUD/ADLER DEBATE CONTINUES

Maurice Bullard of Corvallis, Oregon has provided additional information on the conflicting statements of Kurt Adler and Anna Freud regarding the original meeting of the two "greats." (Vol. XVIII, No. 1, OSIP NewsLetter). Mr. Bullard notes that correspondence with Kurt Adler clarifies earlier remarks made during a symposium at the University of Oregon in 1976. Kurt Adler writes that "It was Freud's brother, not his step-brother--that is how my father related it to me. He did not say that this is how Freud came to invite him into the group; but, since my father practiced medicine before he became a psychiatrist, I concluded this is how they met."

New York, NY, 1/11/78: Dear Ms. Schecht, May I make a correction: on page 2 (of the January Newsletter) it says that Adler insisted "in 1885...." At that time Alfred Adler was 15 years old and I wonder whether this error should be corrected. With my best wishes. Sincerely, Alexandra Adler, M.D.

Burlington, VT, 1/14/78: Dear Ms. Schecht, Sorry to have to call your attention to an error in the January Newsletter, page 2, right-hand column. The first quotation there is indeed from 1885. But it is not by Adler, he being only 15 years old at that time. The quotation is by the Socialist leader August Bebel. My manuscript makes this quite clear, although I can also see how this mistake happened.

NASAP '78 DARE TO CARE

"Dare to Care" about each other in work, love and friendship. This is the theme of NASAP '78, our 26th Annual Convention and Workshops. The Washington, D.C. planning committee is focusing its attention on families, schools and psychotherapy this year and is arranging many demonstrations and practical problem-solving sessions.

The convention will begin at noon on Thursday May 25, with some miniworkshops, a new feature. The keynote address on Thursday evening promises to be exciting; plans for the speeches will be disclosed very soon. Preconvention workshops on Friday, regular convention sessions on Saturday and Sunday, and postconvention workshops on Monday and Tuesday will be scheduled in a manner similar to past years. The convention is opening one day early this year to accommodate members' desires to tour Washington, D.C. in conjunction with the meeting.

NASAP '78 should leave its mark on the nation's capitol. An active public relations program is being planned to bring our ideas and techniques to the attention of government officials.

The planning committee is also providing for the needs of vacationing families. A full schedule of sightseeing and entertaining activities is being arranged for children who accompany their parents. Civil Air Patrol cadets have volunteered to give guided tours of the new Air and Space Museum. Visits will also be made to the Capitol, the White House, the Smithsonian, and National Zoo and other places of interest.

A call for convention programs was mailed to all members at the end of December along with a two page news release on convention plans which local societies may want to share with their members. All program proposals should be returned by no later than February 15, 1978 in order to be considered.

Anyone planning to attend NASAP '78 should come prepared to work and play very hard.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA NOT INCLUDED

Congratulations goes to the Convention Planning Committee for respecting the National Women's Boycott of Non-ERA Supporting States by recommending the cleared District of Columbia for our 1978 National Convention.

MORE ON NASAP '78

Notes from Carol Arnold and IPA News: Friday evening will feature an Adlerian Story Hour and Cabaret. Adlerians are being invited to share their humorous stories and anecdotes that are often heard by only a few members at conventions. An Adlerian author's luncheon is planned for Saturday. Authors who have published recently will be available to autograph their books. Saturday evening the customary gala banquet will be followed by Greek dancing. Sunday's brunch will feature an address by NASAP President, Frank Walton, and Sunday evening festivities will culminate with a cruise, and dining and dancing down the Potomac River on the "Dandee."

The Hyatt Regency Hotel is an exciting convention facility. Fresh flowers, dancing water fountains, and an air of dignity, grace and quality greet the newcomer. Food is outstanding. Rooms will be available to participants for $30 per day for single or double occupancy.

A flyer announcing workshop offerings will be available by the middle of February. The Committee hopes to offer graduate credit and continuing education credit for professional groups. ODE TO THE MEMBERSHIP

If you this letter do peruse
And look for newsy, newsy news,
Then help us find some stuff to print
To get a spark we need some flint.
And sparks we want to generate
So please don't just procrastinate.
Gather what you want to share
Write it straight or with a flare.
Information, work, ideas
Opinions, etc. for your peers.
"Tis better to be so informed
Than in the dark and quite forlorn
Remember we've a deadline, too
And printing takes a week to do.
Allow for mailing--painfully slow--
It never flies as does the crow
Let's really set the world on fire
Communication can inspire.

We'll send it out across the miles.

FUNDING NEWS

Terre Haute, Indiana

The Katherine Hamilton Mental Health Center, Inc. has received a renewal for 1978 of the FEA grant from Eli Lilly Foundation for $15,540. The Grant partially covers costs of stipends for leaders and coordinators, workshops, forums, consultants and office and new program development, serving 500 persons through parent groups, indirectly benefiting over 1,000 children in 1977.

REGIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

REGION I: Region I has moved toward an independent status as an educational organization to be known as North American Society of Adlerian Psychology--Region I; hereafter known as Region I. The Region shall consist of three areas designated as A, B, C to insure equitable dispersion of Region I Board Members and NASAP Delegates.

Area A: British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan

Area B: Alaska, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming

Area C: Hawaii, California, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico

Dave MacDougall, Vice-President of Region I has stirred up a beehive of activity in the Edmonton Catholic Schools with an attractive three-fold brochure entitled: Parent Study Group Program--Don't Give Up which has been distributed to parents of 20,000 children. To handle the response, 40 experienced leaders are available to the city and Region which is divided into ten districts. Each district also has available, for consultation, a professional Adlerian-trained counselor. Potential leaders among the groups will be given leadership training to keep the momentum going.

Richard Berrett has announced that he does not intend to run for re-election to the Delegate Assembly this year so that the opportunity may be available to someone else within the Region. He thinks it would be helpful for nominees to be aware of the great amount of time and expense they can anticipate contributing as Delegates on the Assembly.

REGION II: A Regional Newsletter, Commonweal, has been established for upper Midwest Region II Adlerians. Any suggestions, comments, energies which you wish to channel into the organization and development of Adlerian activities in this region, please send to Dr. Jim McDonough, 2840 Cavell Avenue South, St. Louis Park, Minnesota 55426.

A Speaker/Consultant List is also being compiled for those people willing to donate talents and skills to help communities throughout the Region organize Adlerian activities. Send name and area of expertise to Jim McDonough.

REGION V: The following letter was received by our central office:

Amherst, Massachusetts, 1/14/78: It's been exciting for me to watch the group of folks in my own area respond to the feeling of Regional support and activity. We now have two groups that meet regularly; one for clinicians and one for study group leaders. There's even some discussion of looking for funding to get a Center going. Terrific. I'll keep you in touch with developments.

It's going to be an exciting year. Sincerely, Maria Hartwell-Walker.

The Region V. Meeting and Enrichment Workshop will be held March 18-19 at the Barbizon Plaza Hotel in New York City, 59th St. & Avenue of the Americas. Speakers will include: Kurt Adler, "Interviewing Techniques"; Heinz Ansbacher, "Cooperation Between the Sexes (Adlerian Psychology and Women)"; Stan Shapiro, "Group Demonstration with Teens"; Robert L. Registration on Saturday morning is 8:30 AM.

CALL FOR PAPERS
FIFTH NASAP SYMPOSIUM
on

SCIENTIFIC INQUIRY IN INDIVIDUAL PSYCHOLOGY

I would like to invite your participation in the Fifth Symposium on Scientific Inquiry in Individual Psychology. The symposium will be part of the next NASAP meeting to be held in Washington, D.C. in May 1978. The purpose of the symposium is to stimulate and improve empirical and theoretical investigation into issues and activities of concern to Individual Psychology. Papers are being solicited which suggest new strategies, research designs, measurement instruments or procedures, and methods for data analysis related to researchable questions, concepts and propositions in Adlerian Psychology. Also welcome are (1) papers which critique the current status of these areas, (2) papers which illuminate the process of deriving testable hypotheses from Adlerian theory and which also present plausible research strategies for testing these hypotheses, and (3) papers which represent basic conceptual elaboration and theoretical development in Individual Psychology. Please note that mention of individual empirical studies will be relevant, but only to support a broader statement concerning theory or methodology per se. "Cognitive-Behavioral Psychology from the viewpoint of Individual Psychology" is the theme of this year's Symposium. Although all papers submitted will be considered, those which explore the contributions which Individual Psychology can make to the emerging field of cognitive-behavioral psychology and psychotherapy (see, for example, Arnold Lazarus, Has Behavior Therapy Outlived Its Usefulness, American Psychologist, July, 1977, 550-554, and Michael Mahoney, Reflections on the Cognitive-Learning Trend in Psychotherapy, American Psychologist, January 1977, 5-13) will be given priority.

If interested, please provide the following by February 1, 1978:

2. Whether you are interested in being a participant or a discussant.
