PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Delegate Assembly Meeting

A productive, exciting meeting of the Delegate Assembly clarified some NASAP priorities. I am pleased to report two major initiatives and their implications.

NASAP will hire a professional Convention Coordinator to assist host groups with the complex tasks of hotels, publicity, and budgets. Lifting this burden will allow our volunteers to devote more time to the essential tasks of a convention. The D.A. also approved Seattle for the 1988 and Minneapolis for the 1989 conventions.

We are continuing our efforts to make NASAP more visible in the helping professions by working with a marketing firm. In the next few months, you will begin to see the results of our marketing efforts. We are concerned not only with attracting new members to NASAP, but with improving services to the membership.

The Executive Committee will meet in Chicago in mid-January to continue the development of the convention and marketing initiatives.

Social Interest Award

The Delegate Assembly has given the first NASAP Continental Social Interest Award to Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter. The award recognizes those outside NASAP whose actions reflect the true spirit of social interest. The Carters are acknowledged for their work with Habitat, an effort to build low cost housing in America's inner cities. We look forward to giving this award at the Fort Wayne convention.

Recognizing Effort

I often tell parents and teachers, "Appreciate assets and efforts!" One doesn't have to look very far to recognize selfless effort on behalf of NASAP. Thanks to Betty Lou Bettner and her committee for a successful Region IV Conference. More than 200 attended the conference, and $5,000 has been donated to NASAP.

Changing Addresses

Due to unacceptable conditions arising from the sale of the building NASAP has occupied for eight years, it is necessary to move to more appropriate quarters. NASAP's new address and phone number will be sent to you when all is final.

My best wishes to all of us and our families as we begin 1987!

Respectfully Submitted,

Don C. Dinkmeyer, Jr., Ph.D.
President

LETTERS

Honolulu, Hawaii--
October 20, 1986

Dear Adlerian Friends:

I wish to send you my heartfelt gratitude for all the support I received from you both morally and financially over the last four years.

As most of you know, I was indicted for Medicaid fraud in March of 1983 for supposedly not having physician referrals for clients, although I turned over 100 letters to the prosecutor. Since my major work is with families, I naturally saw the children if a mother came to me and I realized that they were a part of her problems. Had I known that I needed a separate referral for each child in the family, I could have, of course, obtained one from each child's pediatrician. However, Medicaid regulations are vague and do not state how referrals should be made--written, orally, individually or by which type of medical specialist.

The case never did go to trial but there were several hearings before the Magistrate in which he recommended dismissal and the Federal Judge concurred. However, each time the prosecutor appealed. At the last hearing the Magistrate again agreed that the regulations are vague and also unconstitutional unfair because only psychologists and not psychiatrists had to obtain physician referrals for Medicaid reimbursements.

On August 18, 1986, Federal Judge Samuel King, eight months after the Magistrate's ruling, dismissed the indictment for lack of a "speedy trial," "with prejudice," meaning that the prosecutor could not again re-indict me with the same charges. Despite my joy over the dismissal, I still experience the high cost of this situation with Medicaid--the disintegration of my thriving psychological practice, tremendous financial loss and health problems related to the stressful factors.

I could not have gone through this ordeal without the forty plus years of Adlerian training and living which gave me the fortitude to survive without bitterness while maintaining my optimistic attitude. I am now, at age 67, experiencing my newest graduation--again building a new career of leading seminars in improving relationships as well as rebuilding my practice.

Some thirty professionals have had equally devastating situations with the Medicaid witchhunt. The entire professional community is in terror of becoming embroiled with Medicaid, therefore, very few are now taking Medicaid cases. It is sad that the poor people of this community are not getting the services they sorely need.

Again, thank you for your loving support over the many years.

--Genevieve Painter

REGIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

REGION V--NORTHEAST

Sylvia Robbins reported that the regional meeting sponsored by the New York Committee, Region V, was well attended with about 40 registrants coming not only from New York and New Jersey area but also from Atlanta, Washington, D.C. and Ottawa. One of the new participants commented, "If you don't come to an Adlerian function, you don't know what you've missed!"

REGION VI--FAR WEST

Steve Maybell, Region VI President, wants all Region VI Adlerians to know that the Region VI Networking list is being updated and that anyone wishing to be added to the list may do so by contacting him at the address below. A $5 annual dues must be attached for inclusion. However, anyone currently on the list who has new or changed information to add, need only send the information.

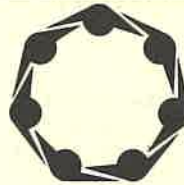

The Networking list includes information on skills, activities, training expertise and contact information so that Region VI participants can better utilize each other as resources.

"ALFRED ADLER" EXHIBITION

NASAP wishes to acknowledge with great appreciation recent donations from organizations:

1. The Family Education Association of North-west New Jersey sent a donation of $427.65 in honor of BIRGIT LA MOTHE, who founded and worked with the organization for a number of years. The sum represents the organization's savings since the organization has been "put on hold while its leaders pursue other careers," according to Sue Venable.

2. The Columbia Adlerian Society included a $1,000 donation with their payment of 1987 dues. President James Young indicated that the contribution was in honor of KATHY AND FRANK WALTON in recognition of "their useful and continuing contributions to Adlerian Ideals."

3. Region IV--Middle Atlantic and the local conference committee donated the profit from the Region IV Conference held in Philadelphia in September. Betty Lou Bettner, Chair of the Conference, sent a check in the amount of $5,000 to be used towards the goal of "marketing a terrific product--Adlerian Psychology."

Thank you to these organizations for their generous donations to the work of the Society. We congratulate the people honored and thank them for their services that resulted in the donations!

OUR THANKS ALSO TO THE FOLLOWING FOR SENDING DONATIONS WITH THEIR 1987 DUES PAYMENTS:

The 17th International congress of Individual Psychologie is scheduled for Munster, Germany, July 12-16, 1987. On the occasion of the Congress, the German Society for IP (DGIP) plans an exhibition in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of Alfred Adler's death. A documentary is planned to show the development of IP in Germany and German speaking countries before and after World War II.

The DGIP is looking for original documents; such as, first editions of books, possibly with dedications or annotations by individual psychologists; minutes of proceedings; records for IP congresses; pictures. They welcome any suggestion that reflects the IP of the twenties and thirties, and the new beginning of IP after World War II.

These documents will be on loan and the Organizational Committee will provide for custody of the exhibits. The Committee is asking that you communicate with them about possible items you might have for the exhibit.

ICASSI SCHOLARSHIPS

Three tuition and fullboard scholarships are available for ICASSI's 20th Rudolf Dreikurs Summer Institute in Noordwijkerhout, Holland, July 19-August 1, 1987. One is for a professional already practicing in the field; one is for a lay person active in family education and counseling centers, and the third is for a graduate student preparing for a professional career.

Participants with particular financial problems may apply to the Scholarship Committee for relief from a portion or all of the tuition fee.

The Scholarship Committee requests that a recommendation from at least one person accompany the application. Applications must be received by March 15, 1987.

DELEGATE ASSEMBLY MEETING

Action Items

In addition to the items mentioned by the President in his message on the first page, the following actions were taken by the NASAP Delegate Assembly at its November meeting in Chicago.

1. Ed Abelson was elected Treasurer to fill the remainder of Tom Schramski's two year term. Tom found it necessary to resign as Treasurer but continues on the Delegate Assembly. "Abe" will be on the Executive Committee through May, 1988.
2. Bill Nicoll was elected to the Theory & Research Editorial Board of the Journal.
3. An item was added to the Journal Guidelines regarding the length of terms for Journal Editors and the procedure to follow in the evaluation and selection of editors.
4. Motion was passed that Regions be given authority to determine their own policy with regard to registration payment of presenters.
5. It was recommended that an exhibit package be prepared and made available for meetings being held near convention sites. The target date is for the 1988 Convention in Seattle.
6. A working committee was established to strengthen regional development, with Marion Balla as Chair.
7. A working committee was established to study the issue of a "national" certification system for trained Adlerians. Ron Pancner will chair the committee composed of Kurt Adler, Bill Nicoll, Don Dinkmeyer, Jr., Steve Maybell, Helen Cooley and Randall Thompson.

Information Items

1. Membership Renewal--The Membership Committee asked Delegates to poll people in their regions who had not renewed their membership for 1986. While not all Delegates were able to complete the task, there were 39 responses. Eileen Gilchrist tallied the results. Some of the interesting results are shared here:
  - a. Initial attraction to NASAP--largest number indicated "liked philosophy."
  - b. Reasons for non-renewal: 16 indicated "financial" and 8 said "commitments to other organizations."
  - c. Reasons for displeasure with NASAP organization: 23 said "no displeasure" and 5 indicated "too exclusionary or cliquish."
  - d. Encouraging comments: "Super organization with caring members." "Pleased with the enthusiasm, organization and professional information." "Enjoyed the conferences."
2. Day-Care Providers--Marion Gordon-Rosen, chair of the Task Force on Training of Day-Care Providers, reports that 3-7 persons have attended her working brunches and several have contributed ideas by mail. They have compiled materials of what already exists for such training and have reviewed grants that are available from the Dept. of Health and Human Services. They have decided to forego the possibility of obtaining one of these Federally-funded grants and will go to the private sector. The D.A. was supportive of the work that has been done thus far and encouraged by the commitment of the task force.

Minutes and reports from the D.A. meeting are available upon request from the central office.

The Next Step, a parent education program featuring the book, The Effective Parent, was released December 1st by American Guidance Service, Circle Pines, MN 55014 (800/328-2560).

The program, authored by Adlerians Don Dinkmeyer, Sr., Don Dinkmeyer, Jr., Gary McKay, Joyce McKay, James Dinkmeyer, will provide a dynamic approach to parent education. The focus will be on strengthening the parent as a person as well as parental skills.

Topics include: Building Self Esteem, Coping with Stress, Discipline. There is an emphasis on the development of a problem solving process, thus the program goes beyond the educational to include direct experiences in problem resolution. This program is accompanied by the Next Step video tape which will cover the basics of Adlerian parent education skills, the problem solving process, and the details of family meetings.

TEXAS

Houston--Word has been received that Walter E. O'Connell received a commendation from the VA Medical Center in Houston in honor of his retiring after 33 years of Federal Service. His work with patients dates back to the early 50's when he was employed as a hospital orderly to support his graduate education.

The commendation went on to say that his relationship with patients, through the years, has been one of openness, caring and concern and that his reputation extends beyond the wall of health care institutions to national and international organizations concerned with health and community service, as well as psychosocial educational and religious projects. "Teacher, therapist, psychodramatist, researcher, author, theorist, and mystic; Buzz was, and is, indeed a man for all seasons." NASAP extends its congratulations to Buzz for this well deserved recognition!

REGION V--NORTHEAST

MAINE

Orono--Word has been received from Bill Moore that Adlerian activities in Maine continue to grow. They have prepared By-Laws similar to those of NASAP in anticipation of becoming an affiliated member. They have divided Maine into five regions with three members from each region to serve on a Board of Directors. Donna Miller is President of the Maine Adlerian Society.

Bill reports that he has taught Introduction to Adlerian Psychology at the University of Maine and this has sparked some interest on the part of students. A number of parent study groups have also been established.

35TH ANNUAL CONVENTION/WORKSHOPS
MAY 22-25, 1987
HILTON HOTEL - DOWNTOWN
FORT WAYNE CONVENTION CENTER
FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

Fort Wayne, known as the Summit City and "the Glorious Gate," welcomes each of you to the '87 NASAP Convention and we hope you have put the dates on your May, 1987 calendar!

Although we do not have the "big city hustle," we are planning activities and programs that will more than make up for our lack in size. We hope our charisma and offerings will make your convention memorable, well worth your time, and add a new dimension to your life.

For historical buffs, we offer a "real-life" 1802 fort, complete with Memorial Day activities in military action and authentic costumes. If you choose to slip away from meetings, the public library is within walking distance and offers one of the largest geneological sections in the United States. Also within walking distance is the Art Museum, Civic Theatre, and a lovely city park. We hope to plan a "happening" in these three facilities on Sunday evening for those of you staying over.

Keynote Address will be presented by Dr. James Hillman, who has written, Healing Fiction, in which one chapter is devoted to Alfred Adler and his philosophy.

Following the keynote will be a wine/cheese reception in the lovely Botanical Gardens across from the hotel. With guitar and harp there will be a camaraderie, communing and humor!

PRE-CONVENTION WORKSHOPS - FRIDAY, MAY 22

- Henry T. Stein -- Marathon Group Training Experience (Advanced Level)
- Jane Griffith, Robert L. Powers -- Psychological Aspects of Symptoms, Disease, and Recovery
- Frank Main -- Perfect Parenting and Other Myths
- Leo Gold -- Theatre of Dreams
- Dorothy Peven, Bernard H. Shulman -- Psychodynamics of Psychopathology
- Ron Phillips -- Focus on Prevention
- Marti Wilson, Richard Royal Kopp, Ira Schoenwald -- Options for the Development of Adlerian Concepts in the Corporate World

POST-CONVENTION WORKSHOPS - MONDAY, MAY 25

- John Platt, Ann Platt -- Positive Classroom Atmosphere Through Class Meetings
- Helen Cooley -- Long Term Treatment Skill Building--Recovery from Chemical Dependency
- Betty Lou Bettner, Amy Lew -- Short-Term Therapy Utilizing Specific Early Recollections
- Renee Dobkin Dushman -- Psychodrama and Early Recollections: Adler's Road to One's Creative Perceptions
- William G. Nicoll -- Techniques in the Family Counseling Process
- Mim Pew -- Exploring, Evaluating, and Experiencing the Fifth Life Task: The Spiritual. Additional Presenters: Marlis Auterson, Kris Pancner, Ed Kal, Leo Gold, Walter O'Connell, Ron Pancner

There are many reasons for attending the NASAP Convention, but three definite ones are these:

- 1) for your own self- and professional growth,
- 2) for the benefit of NASAP, the umbrella organization, and
- 3) the expansion of ideas and philosophy of Alfred Adler.

The Convention prices are VERY LOW compared to most other conventions and workshops. The registration fee for the Saturday/Sunday presentations is very minimal for the QUALITY of work being offered, and is underpriced in relationship to many other convention/ workshops. You will also note that the room rate is very reasonable for a truly elegant facility.

Our small, but energetically enthusiastic group looks forward to welcoming you to Fort Wayne and doing everything within our power and abilities to make this convention extremely pleasurable as well as providing superb, stimulating and highly professional workshops and presentations.
